HIGHLIGHTS OF FRANCE

Our barges cruise through Burgundy, along the mighty Rhône and the historic Canal du Midi in the Languedoc, passing swathes of stunning countryside and majestic cities such as Avignon and Dijon.

CANAL DU MIDI

Gems along the 150 mile-long canal, which stretches from Toulouse to the Mediterranean, include the magical hilltop town of Carcassonne, the Minervois wine region and ruggedly beautiful Corbières, famed for its Cathar castles. Rolling vineyards, fields of sunflowers and rows of plane trees create wonderful vistas and great walking and cycling opportunities.

PROVENCE

Sun-baked Provence, inspiration to poets and artists through the ages, offers an irresistible blend of lavender fields, dramatic gorges and vibrant market towns. Van Gogh found his muse in Arles, creating dozens of paintings here. Successions of Popes, meanwhile, were inspired by Avignon, home of their splendid summer base, the Palais des Papes.

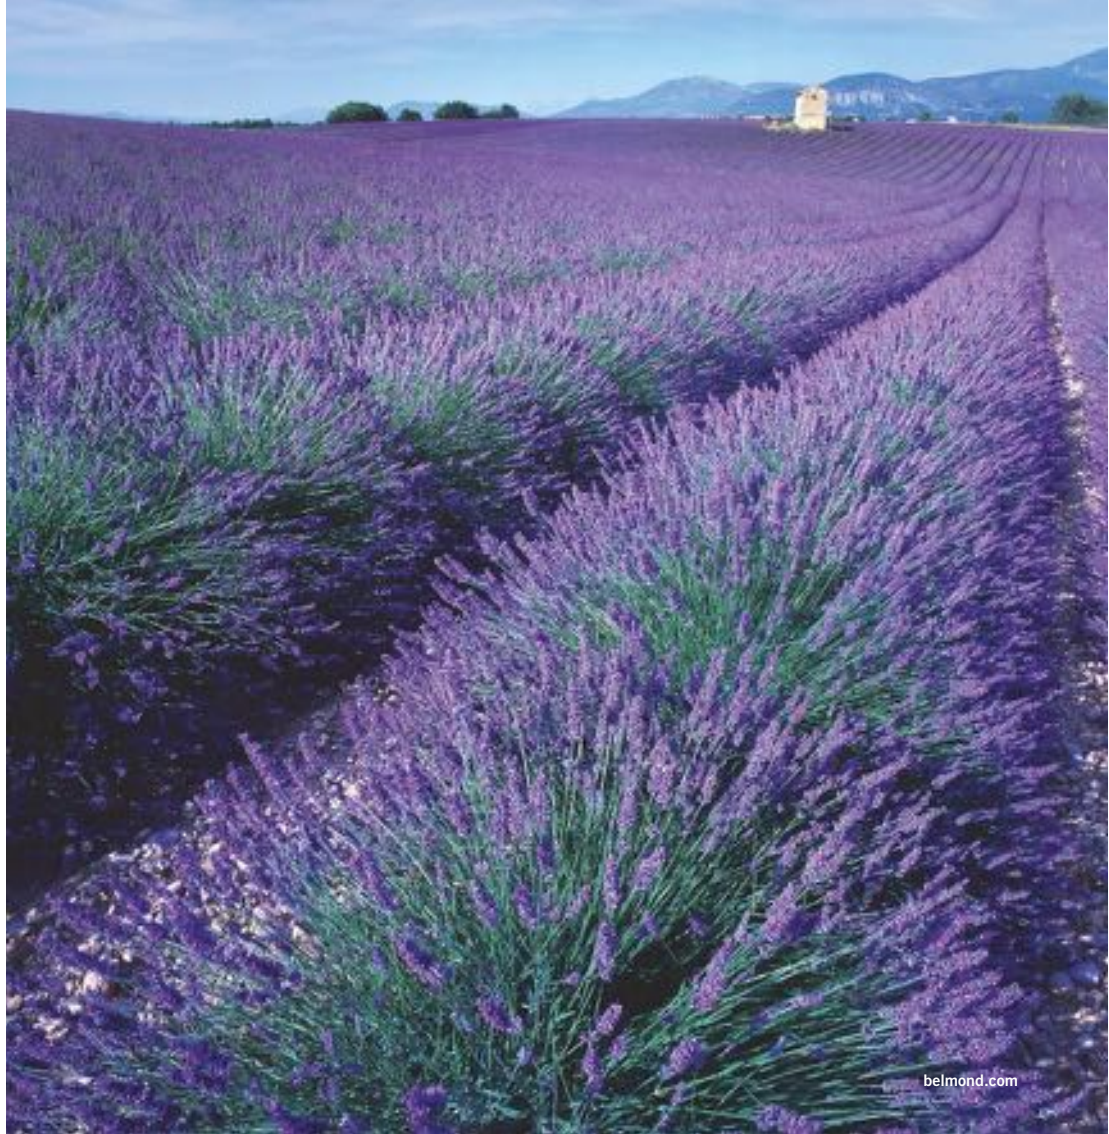

SOUTHERN BURGUNDY

The region of Burgundy produces some of the world's finest wines, including the magnificent "Grands Crus". In the region's fun-loving wine capital, Beaune, you can marvel over the medieval Hôtel-Dieu with its multicoloured tiled roofs. To the north is Dijon, mustard capital of the world, with a fabulous market that lovers of fiery food should not miss.

NORTHERN BURGUNDY

The rolling countryside of this northern region is complemented by charming canals shaded with weeping willows and lined with delightful villages. Chablis is an historic town famed for its crisp, dry white wine. Visit the Abbey of Fontenay, a 12th-century monastery that is now a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and the battlefield of Alésia, where Julius Caesar's forces defeated the Gauls.

Clockwise from left: savour the tranquil waterways; the imposing town of Carcassonne; wine tasting in Burgundy; and lavender fields in Provence.
