

BELMOND
VILLA SAN MICHELE
FLORENCE

MICHELANGELO SUITE Belmond Villa San Michele

Inundated by daylight from sunrise to sunset, the Michelangelo Suite at Belmond Villa San Michele, has a distinguished history. Once the monastery library, it became Emperor Napoleon Bonaparte's headquarters in Florence. Today the huge, canopied, king size bed and the exquisite decorations remain fit for an emperor.

Michelangelo Suite Details

Location:	In the former monastery, it stretches the whole length of the façade
View:	Breathtaking view over Florence, the Arno Valley and the Chianti Hills
Beds:	1 bedroom with king size bed (twin beds available on request) Extra bed (on request) 2 rollaways or 1 rollaway and 1 crib per bedroom
Bathroom:	1 full marble bathroom
Max occupancy:	4 people - either 4 adults or 2 adults and 2 children
Size:	M <sup>2</sup> 70; Sq.ft. 753
Features:	Once the monastery library it became Emperor Napoleon Bonaparte's headquarters in Florence Huge canopy king size bed

A large fireplace dominates one of the walls, its stone mantelpiece a glory of carved craftsmanship.

By far the Villa's largest and most romantic accommodation, the undivided sleeping and sitting areas stretch behind the whole length of the façade with windows dominating Florence, the Arno Valley and the Chianti Hills.

Michelangelo Suite

MICHELANGELO SUITE - 8

